Healthcare Provider (HP) Conducts One of 10 Standard Tests on Patient During Office Examination of Patient and Transcribes the Test Results
1
HP uses any available internet browsing software on any available internet-connected device to access invention website
HP connects with server via secure connection to invention website using password-authenticated login
2
Is patient's healthcare information already in database?
YES
NO
HP enters patient information
3
4
Does the patient already have a case associated with this condition?
YES
NO
HP enters patient's case
5
HP enters data collected during patient testing associated with this case information/condition
6
7
Has this test been performed previously in association with this patient's case?
YES
Data from previous tests is added to current data to provide progressive analysis of patient's
8
NO
Full text report with graphic analysis AND progress reporting on patient's condition
9
10
Full text report with graphic analysis is created
11
HP prints report and submits it to third-party payer
Reports are stored on server for:
- future reference
- reprinting
- progress reporting
12

Fig. 1